SCIENTIX AMBASSADORS 2016-2019

The following people have been selected as Scientix Ambassadors and members of the teachers' panel from 2016 to 2019.

Scientix Ambassadors help share Scientix activities at national level and play an active role in supporting innovation in STEM education in their countries. Their work is essential for expanding and consolidating a community whose core values reside in sharing of good classroom practice, especially in the area of STEM, and making sure that students are equipped with the skills needed to become successful adults.

ELEVEN SCIENCE TEACHERS RECEIVE AWARDS AT STEM ALLIANCE AND SYSTEMIC CONFERENCE

12.12.2017

Country:

Belgium

Topic:

Applied sciences, Materials science, Maths, Technology, Education, Project, Meeting, Event, Other

Teachers from the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Greece, Israel, Italy, Malta, Romania and Ukraine, all gathered in Brussels, Belgium, on 7 December 2017, where they received awards for organising science-based activities and events from representatives of major companies in Europe as part of the STEM Alliance initiative.

These teachers participated in the “All-STEM, All Stars” competition of the STEM Alliance, which ran from 2016 to 2017. They all demonstrated, by organising an event or creating a video, how they promoted subjects and careers in the field of science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM) at their school through innovative practices and methods.

Those nine teachers who received awards for organising STEM events were Panagiota Argyri (Greece), Constantina Cossu (Italy), Gjorgjina Dimova (Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia), Stefanie Gauci (Malta), Stella Magid-Podolsky (Israel), Nikolaos

STEM Discovery Week 2018 is a joint international initiative that invites projects, organisations and schools across Europe and around the world, to celebrate careers and studies in the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM). The tagline for this year's campaign "say yes to STEM" describes the partners' open-minded and dedicated support to STEM subjects at school, as well as wide-ranging collaboration among stakeholders in the area.

Interested to become a partner?

By committing to the STEM Discovery Week 2018, the partners agree to:

- Organise and share information about activities in STEM education as part of the STEM
